Warsaw, November 11, N. S.

IT is thought his Polish Majesty will stay here till the Month of April next. M. Bestuchef has taken his Leave of all the publick Ministers here, and designs t out on Tuesday next for Berlin, where ssenger waits his Arrival with his Intions from her Czarish Majesty. This Minister does not know whether he is to stay here some Time, or go directly for the ague.

penhagen, Nov. 14, N. S. The Mourng for the late King has been regulated cording to the several Ranks and Degrees ersons, the two chief of which are, The Privy-Councellors, who, besides Servants and Equipages, are to put two rtments of their Houses in Mourning. 2. Knights of Danbrugg, Officers of the urt, and all Men of any considerable Emyments, are only to cloath their Ser- s and Equipages. The French Ambassa- puts himself upon the first Rank, and s his Apartments; but the other foreign sters of all inferior Characters will put selves upon the other. The Mourning last for a Year, but will not begin till Court removes into this City; in the time every one is preparing for it. His sh Majesty continues still at Fredericksg, wholly employed in the Regulation of affairs. The Changes seem now to be y at a Stand, but more are expected af- the Funeral. The Privy-Council, con- g of the two Mess. de Plessen, and Ba- Rosenkrantz, seems to be entirely settled. Louis Plessen has the chief Direction of Treasury, and M. Rosenkrantz that of German and Danish Departments in the tary's Office. M. Rosenkrantz is likeappointed Superintendant of the Educaof the Prince Royal.
